

The following lawmakers are prevented from seeking another term in their respective chambers in 2020 due to term limit restrictions:

Ohio Senate (6-All Republicans)

4th District: Bill Coley (R-Liberty Twp.)
6th District: Peggy Lehner (R-Kettering)
14th District: Joe Uecker (R-Loveland)
18th District: John Eklund (R-Chardon)
22nd District: Larry Obhof (R-Medina)
26th District: Dave Buke (R-Marysville)

Ohio House (14)

2nd District: Mark Romanchuk (R-Mansfield)
29th District: Louis Blessing (R-Cincinnati)
36th District: Anthony DeVitis (R-Green)
39th District: Fred Strahorn (D-Dayton)
41st District: Jim Butler (R-Oakwood)
60th District: John Rogers (D-Mentor-on-the-Lake)
65th District: John Becker (R-Union Twp.)
66th District: Doug Green (R-Mt. Orab)
73rd District: Rick Perales (R-Beavercreek)
78th District: Ron Hood (R-Ashville)
92nd District: Gary Scherer (R-Circleville)
93rd District: Ryan Smith (R-Bidwell)
96th District: Jack Cera (D-Bellaire)
99th District: John Patterson (D-Jefferson)

Sorted by party

Republicans (10)

John Becker (R-Union Twp.)
Louis Blessing (R-Cincinnati)
Jim Butler (R-Oakwood)
Anthony DeVitis (R-Green)
Doug Green (R-Mt. Orab)
Ron Hood (R-Ashville)
Rick Perales (R-Beavercreek)
Mark Romanchuk (R-Mansfield)
Gary Scherer (R-Circleville)
Ryan Smith (R-Bidwell)

Democrats (4)

Jack Cera (D-Bellaire)
John Patterson (D-Jefferson)
John Rogers (D-Mentor-on-the-Lake)
Fred Strahorn (D-Dayton)