SYNOPSIS 26

Energy policy changes 27

R.C. 4906.011 28

Removes the requirement that a reliable energy source be 29
one that is dispatchable at all times. 30

Changes the definition of "foreign adversary nation" to 31 mean any country that is designated by the federal government as 32 a foreign adversary or country of concern, including a country 33 designated as a state sponsor of terrorism, subject to 34 comprehensive sanctions administered by the Office of Foreign 35 Assets Control, or otherwise determined by the governor in 36 consultation with the attorney general, to pose a risk to 37 national or economic security, or to the country's supply chain; 38

Includes, as a "foreign adversary nation," any entity that	39
is owned, controlled by, or subject to the jurisdiction or	40 direction of a foreign adversary nation, including state-owned	41
enterprises, instrumentalities, or companies operating under	42
compulsory national laws.	43
Changes the declaration of the state's energy siting	44
policy as follows:	45
- Includes energy generated by nuclear reaction in	46
prioritizing domestic energy production;	47
- Minimizes reliance on foreign adversary nations or those	48
subject to certain provisions of federal law for critical	49
materials or manufacturing by prioritizing infrastructure	50 necessary to deliver energy to Ohio customers;	51
Adds prioritization of Ohioan- and American-built	52 infrastructure and components necessary to deliver energy to	53
Ohio customers.	54
