

Administrative Director

Position Announcement

The Supreme Court of Ohio seeks an experienced, innovative, visionary leader with excellent communication and interpersonal skills to serve as Administrative Director. This senior non-elected official of the Court works closely with the chief justice, six justices and judges across the state to develop and communicate the vision, values, and direction of the judicial branch of Ohio government. This position is located in Columbus, Ohio.

Overview

The Administrative Director of the Supreme Court of Ohio is created under the Ohio Constitution as the chief administrative officer overseeing the day-to-day administrative functions of the Court.

Ohio has a home rule tradition, which is preserved in the state constitution. Ohio is a non-unified court system. Judges are separately elected, as are the clerks of general jurisdiction, the courts of common pleas. Some clerks of municipal courts may be elected depending on the jurisdiction. The Supreme Court exercises superintending authority through the Rules of Superintendence.

This is an unclassified position with the State of Ohio and serves at the pleasure of the Court.

Duties

The Administrative Director provides leadership and supervision to the following divisions/areas of the Court: Attorney Services, Bar Admissions, Chief Legal Counsel, Office of the Clerk of the Court, Court Security, Court Services, Facilities Management, Fiscal Resources, Human Resources, Information Technology, Judicial Services and the Ohio Judicial College, Law Library, Legal Resources, Office of the Reporter, and Public Information.

The Administrative Director identifies emerging issues and assigns staff to special projects, initiatives, and task forces, as well as the Court's boards and commissions. He or she identifies areas for improvement in process, procedure, and services to ensure the Court is fulfilling its mission and vision of providing exceptional public service to the people of Ohio.

Further, the Administrative Director identifies, recommends, and implements administrative and policy solutions to improve the operations of each division, cross-divisional operations, and the Court as a whole.

The Administrative Director develops and maintains constructive relationships with other government officials, agencies, and departments, as well as outside organizations and entities, including the bar and local courts and judges throughout the state of Ohio and the nation.
