

OhioRISE

a timeline

STORK

2016

Legislative Study committee started

2019

DeWine Administration committed to the Multi-System Youth Action Plan

Next Generation Procurement Process
• RFI 1 - 2019 • RFI 2 - 2020

Listening Sessions
(2019-2023)

Community sessions
National Experts
Voice of the consumer

Aetna + CMES Selected

NEWBORN

2022

Systems testing

JUL 1 OhioRISE Go live

Remaining services go live including the Standalone CANS, Intensive Care Coordination/Moderate Care Coordination, comprehensive in-home assessment, MRSS, IHBT

INFANT

Launch CMEs

2023

Advisory Council and Implementation & Operations Workgroup

Community and Provider Training

Care Coordination training
Billing and Claims, IT Systems tech assistance
Local and Statewide Systems Engagement

Recruited and contracted 57,465 unique providers to deliver behavioral treatment and support enrolled youth

Trained and certified 2,819 CANS Assessors

Introduced new services like flex funds, respite support

Met with more than 1,500 child serving entities to educate about OHR

TODDLER

2024 to now

Designed and implemented PRTF

Continue to focus on supporting SOC, including developing partnerships at the local level, Build statewide MRSS, Population Health,

Quality Improvement
Baseline metrics
Working Board of Advisors

CHILD

Additional Program Development
Capacity building – respite services
Population Health and quality improvement projects

ADOLESCENT

Value-based contracting
Rapid Cycle Quality Improvement
Enhanced services for population needs like fire setting, eating disorders, developmental disabilities

YOUNG ADULT

Improve linkages to behavioral health services as members transition into adulthood
Statewide MRSS available 24/7

ADULT

Regular assessment of system of care implementation
Regular assessment of specific services and supports

“For much of what we do, we will not see the results in the life of this administration, nor in some people’s cases, in our lifetimes. Yet we do these things nonetheless, grounded in the faith and grounded in hope that we can change the future.” – Governor DeWine, Inaugural Address 2019